

ASSOCIATIONS

Together we can move more.

Why three associations? Organic management is a quality focused demand, that reflects in high quality wines. So, the membership in these associations is the logical choice.

VDP

“VDP.Die Prädikatsweingüter” celebrated in the year 2010 the 100th anniversary. Emerged from the association of the natural wine auctioneers, merges premium vineries in Germany. The VDP members joins the strive for high sensorial quality with clear reference to our regions, the emphasis of the terroir and the conservation of the traditional vine cultivation. The „VDP.Die Prädikatsweingüter“ hosts for the specialized wine trade, the gastronomy and wine lovers different events in the country and abroad. And it supports the preservation of the premium wine culture.

Our vinery is a member since 1971.

ECOVIN

ECOVIN is in comparison a young association, it emerged from the awakening of the environmental and nature conservation movement in the 70s and 80s. The aim is the clearly defined and since 1992 also controlled by the European Decree: Protection of the environment, sustainable work without unnecessary burdening our soils, water and air, the creation of authentic wines. We are part of the founding members.

DEMETER stands for products of the biodynamic work. The oldest organic form of the land cultivation goes back to the impulses of Rudolf Steiner, who initiated the Waldorf education and the anthroposophical healing in the beginning of the 20th century. Since 2008 our wines are also certified by DEMETER.
